Dear Sisters and Brothers,

“We’re number one! We’re number one!” How we like to cheer this when winning a game, a race, a pennant, a championship, etc. We are proud, and we like to take credit when our side has accomplished something great. Yet, our scripture readings today give us a very different message. The prophet Zephaniah describes a lowly remnant of believers, who take no credit for themselves, but instead, depend completely on the Lord. They observe God’s law, “seek justice and humility, do no wrong, speak no lies or deceit.” (Unfortunately, our cynical world frequently calls them “losers”). St Paul describes his converts in Corinth in similar terms, we might even say insulting terms: not wise, powerful, or noble, but rather foolish, weak, lowly, and despised. “Whoever boasts,” says St. Paul, “should boast in the Lord.” You haven’t anything else to brag about. Jesus also does not cater to our desire for self-congratulation. Blessedness in His kingdom comes to the poor in spirit, mourners, the meek, those hungering and thirsting for justice, the pure of heart and the peacemakers. This is not a list of top dogs, fat cats, movers and shakers, or beautiful people often described as “winners.” On the contrary, we are invited to revel in humility. Humility is truth. It is not pretending to be less or worse than we are. It means seeing who we really are. Our very existence depends on God. Our personal talents, and our material goods are themselves gifts from God. Our spiritual gifts also, our faith, the Mass and the sacraments, the Scriptures, our Christian teachings, and traditions we earn none of them. We do have much to brag about, but all our blessings come as grace from the Lord, as St. Paul reminds us. Our wisdom is not the wisdom the world holds dear. Our treasures are things the world usually tries to avoid. It is perfectly all right to root for the winning team. It is OK to celebrate a pennant or a championship. But it is important to see the whole picture. We are in this life to become winners on God’s team: to excel in virtue, to take the sermon on the Mount’s beatitudes seriously and live them faithfully. When the world can see in us the compassion, honesty, self-sacrifice, and love of Jesus, then we will truly be Number One. Humbled, total dependence on God and imitation of Christ bring true blessings in the Kingdom of God. Whose team will you be on?

Since this Tuesday, February 03, 2026, is the Feast of St. Blaise, we will be blessing throats after all the Masses this weekend and again on the Feast Day itself after the 8:00am Mass.

Be assured of my prayers. I ask you to please remember me in your prayers.

God bless,
Father Di Orio
