Dear Sisters and Brothers,

In today's Gospel from Mark, Jesus sends the Apostles to preach his values to the world, to deliver his message that God's Kingdom is at hand. Jesus instructed the Apostles to go out and proclaim the word. They were told to pack light! No money, no second tunic, only sandals on their feet and a walking stick. They were to rely on the hospitality of others. As Roman Catholic Christians, every one of us is called to carry on the work of Jesus. In doing so, we honor our baptismal promises. What a challenge! God's word promises us every spiritual blessing in Christ when we live as his disciples. The mission of Jesus was not restricted to the twelve Apostles or to their successors. By virtue of Jesus' command and our baptism we are all sent, we are all apostles, given the mission to evangelize! and we must not let anything distract us. Unfortunately, we all become distracted (tempted) during our mission. However, we must remain steadfast and let nothing distract (tempt) us from doing the Lord's work. As disciples we must be focused on our mission to bring people to God. We do this by living our faith openly and courageously regardless of how others may perceive us.

Be assured of my prayers, and I ask you to please remember me in your prayers.

Happy Summer!
God bless,
Father Di Orio
