rom the Pastor's Desk

Dear Sisters and Brothers,

In Luke's Gospel, Martha was doing the correct thing; she provided for her guest. Under normal circumstances her great activity on behalf of Jesus would be laudable. But Martha was distracted. She was focused more on the details of hospitality than on the person who was the reason for the activity. We can also recognize the resentment that seemed to be growing within Martha due to Mary's lack of help. Resentment itself can be a distraction. Martha's distraction was that she was more worried about what Mary was doing rather than about the person to whom Mary was paying attention. In reality both women were doing the right thing. Mary who is sitting at Jesus' feet is listening to the word of God, she is a true disciple, (one who listens to God's word). But Martha is doing right as well, she is a true disciple (one who serves the Lord). It was not that what Martha was doing was wrong; it was she had forgotten the One she was serving. When Martha offers a solution to her problem, "Tell Mary to help me", it seems like Jesus is reprimanding Martha for not choosing the better part like her sister Mary. However, this is not the main focus of this passage in the Gospel. The main thing is that both Mary and Martha are doing the same thing. They are both devoted to Jesus and so both are serving Jesus. Jesus did not criticize Martha for preparing a meal. If Martha was doing what she should have been doing, then what did she do wrong? Martha lost focus on why she was doing what she was doing. "Martha, you are anxious and worried." In other words, Martha was distracted. Her concern with Mary distracted her and therefore made her service a burden. This is what Jesus corrected and then taught: stay focused on why we do what we do. The "better part" was not sitting at Jesus' feet listening to his words. The "better part" was devotion to the Lord. The "better part" is finding our focus in Him for whatever we do. Jesus did not place one activity – listening or preparing a meal – above the other. Both are important to Jesus, for they are both expressions of our desire to love and serve. They are both aspects of discipleship. Are we focused on serving the Lord? How devoted are we?

Be assured of my prayers. I ask you to remember me in your prayers.

Happy Summer!
God Bless!
Father Di Orio

WATCH YOUR POSTURE

Our posture is often a tip-off to our hospitality and reverence for the Lord. Note the actions of Abraham as he greeted the Lord in the presence of three men who appeared near his tent. He ran from the entrance of the tent to greet them. He bowed to the ground as he met them. He and Sarah, his wife, hastened to prepare a meal and bring food and water to their guests.

In the Gospel story, Jesus' friend Mary sat at his feet in order to listen to him speak.

How do we welcome and reverence the Lord? What do our actions show? Do we remember the Lord's presence in the Blessed Sacrament? How do we welcome the Lord in the scripture readings? How do we acknowledge his presence in our brothers and sisters, both at Mass and afterwards?

Whether we kneel, stand, or sit in the Lord's presence, may our hearts and minds always be attuned to him.
