ARCHDIOCESE OF PHILADELPHIA
TELEVISED MASS

Every Sunday, at 5:30AM on Channel 6-WPVI TV, the Archdiocese of Philadelphia celebrates Sunday Mass, which is broadcast through the courtesy of Channel 6-WPVI.

Dear Sisters and Brothers,

In our Gospel reading, we hear the words: "Come to me, all you who labor and are burdened, and I will give you rest." This invitation is extended by Jesus to all of us. However, these words do not mean inactivity. We are invited to become yokemates with Christ. A yoke is an instrument that allows heavy burdens to be carried or pulled without serious chafing. Jesus is not promising us less accountability. He is promising us help so that we can more easily bear our responsibility in following God's will. We, who are invited, are to accomplish this by learning from Jesus Himself. He, too, bears a yoke and the invitation is to share that yoke and thus learn from Him. Here the key to bearing one's yoke is a close imitation of Jesus' gentleness and Him being humble of heart. Gentleness or meekness is not weakness, but power fully controlled. For example, a raging fire burns down the house, but the energy of a controlled one heats the house. A willful young ox was yoked to an experienced one who pulled more of the weight until the rookie learned to cooperate. When tired out by its own efforts, it realized the benefit of working in tandem and less chafing. The yoke is the symbol of discipleship, for without it we cannot become disciples. Imagine Jesus, a carpenter, who no doubt measured animals and custom fitted their yokes to be "easy". We seek our own comfort zone, especially when we are weary or burdened. Our weariness is the door into Jesus' mercy. The only qualification is to be a "little one," to have a need and turn to Him with it. All this will allow two things to happen. First, a heavy burden can still be managed. Second, that burden will seem much lighter because Jesus Himself is helping. As yokemates with Jesus, we can say with Him that our yoke is easy and our burden light. These words should give us comfort, especially in the trials and challenges that we face each day. Jesus never made the promise to take away our sufferings. Quite the opposite: Jesus promised us that we will suffer. Suffering will always find us, because suffering always has something to teach us, but let us never despair and always turn to Christ, who will give us rest.

At this time of the year many are blessed to be able to go away for the summer months or summer weekends. Be safe and enjoy yourself. God doesn't take a vacation from us, so we should remember to keep holy the Lord's Day by attending Mass when we are on vacation.

Also, thank you to those who continue their parish support even though they are away from Stella Maris on weekends or summer months. Please remember your weekly contribution to Stella Maris Church. Your support is so necessary for the parish expenses.

Be assured of my prayers. I ask you to please remember me in your prayers.

Happy Summer!
God Bless!
Father Di Orio

“Prayer for the Revival”

My God, I believe, I adore, I hope and I love You! I beg pardon for those who do not believe, nor adore, nor hope, nor love You. (three times)

Most Holy Trinity, Father, Son and Holy Spirit, I adore You profoundly. I offer You the most precious Body, Blood, Soul and Divinity of Jesus Christ, present in all the tabernacles of the world in reparation for the outrages, sacrileges and indifferences by which He is offended. And, through the infinite merits of the Sacred Heart of Jesus and the Immaculate Heart of Mary, I beg of You the conversion of sinners. Our Lady of Fatima, pray for us.
