The Archdiocese of Philadelphia rejoices to have 10 more of our priests newly appointed to this ministry. You are invited to solemn vespers and the commissioning of the new Missionaries of Mercy on Sunday, 09/24/23 at 4:30PM at the Cathedral of Saints Peter and Paul. Archbishop Nelson J. Dear Sisters and Brothers,

In today's Gospel, Jesus asked the questions, "Who do people say that the Son of Man is?" and "Who do you say that I am?" The answers to both these questions varied. At first Jesus let the disciples off the hook by asking, "Who do people say that the Son of Man is?" The response was, "some say John the Baptist, others Elijah..." Then He quickly puts them on the spot and asked them, "But who do you say that I am?" Now they need to think about who they truly believe Jesus to be. We know that Peter answers, "You are the Christ, the Son of the living God". So, who is Jesus? Jesus is the Christ, the Son of the living God. Jesus is God's Anointed, the one who carries the message of God, and the presence of God to the world. Each of us was anointed at Baptism to carry that message. What will our response be? We reveal our response in the way we live our lives who Jesus is for us. Each of us is called to reflect Jesus in his own way. After Peter's response, Jesus responded by saying that He is the rock on which He will build His Church. This begs the question, what is the Church to me? Do I allow the Church to have the authority Jesus gave it through Peter? Jesus gave the keys to the kingdom to the newly formed Church, embodied in Peter, but including all who believed. The Church holds the keys to binding and loosening. It has the power to overcome evil. The Church is to be the continuation of the work and mission begun by Christ on earth. The Church is about faith and service. How do we live our lives? We are called to serve and not be served. We are called to go out into the world and become another Christ for others. The Church is a community of faith united in its mission to announce and build the kingdom of God. Jesus teaches us that so great is the community of faith - the Church- that not even death, (the gates of the netherworld), can prevail against it. Are we Church? Do we build up the kingdom of God? Jesus relies on us, individually and as a faith community, to grow in our understanding of who He is and to share that understanding with others. When we reach out to help those in need or share with those who have no one to share with them, it is then that we reveal who Jesus is in our lives.

Be assured of my prayers. I ask you to please remember me in your prayers.

Happy Summer!
God bless!
Fr. Di Orio

OFFICE OF THE ARCHBISHOP

AUGUST 27, 2023

Dear Sisters and Brothers in Christ,

Thank you for your generous support of the Black and Indian Mission Collection each year! This fundraising initiative was established as the first national collection for the Catholic Church in the United States in 1874. Since that time, it has proven to be a successful vehicle for sharing the resources of the Church's members to provide for the unique cultural, pastoral, and temporal needs of our African American, Native American, and Alaskan Native sisters and brothers.

Pope Francis reminds us that all are called to evangelize with the zealous heart of a Missionary Disciple. As we embark on another year of evangelization in the communities benefitting from this endeavor, I invite you to make a difference by offering prayers and a financial contribution to support these missions.

Your support provides the presence of missionaries here in African American, Native American, and Alaskan Native missions, parishes, schools, religious education programs and the many, many diocesan programs and projects that strengthen the work of the Gospel. Your partnership places Bibles and catechetical materials in the hands of priests, consecrated men and women, and lay leaders. Your sacrifice impacts pastoral work across the country and addresses the need to train catechists, permanent deacons, and seminarians for future generations here in our many neighborhoods and backyards.

Please consider a gift to the 2023 National Black and Indian Mission Collection. You can learn more about the good works it supports by visiting www.blackandindianmission.org. Thank you for your consideration of this request. Please be assured of my prayers for you and your families. May God bless you abundantly.

Sincerely in Christ,
+Most Reverend Nelson J. Perez, D.D.
Archbishop of Philadelphia
