Dear Sisters and Brothers,

We welcome back our family members of Stella Maris who have been away for the summer. We also hope that all of you had a nice relaxing summer and were able to get away for some fun in the sun.

This Wednesday will be 23 years since the attack on America. Please remember in your prayers all those who lost their lives on September 11th and all those men and women who continue to serve in our armed forces making it possible for us to live freely.

In today's Gospel from Mark, Jesus heals the person who is deaf and mute. There are two striking things about today's healing: First, Jesus is not afraid to draw close to and actively engage when he heals a person. He does this by placing his fingers into the person's ears. Then Jesus uses his own saliva and touches the person's tongue. Finally, the incantation in Greek, "Ephphatha", which means be opened. The result is immediate, and the person can both hear and speak. We needn't try to hide our defects; indeed, we can expect Jesus to deal with us in a way no less intimate, no less personal than he showed the deaf mute. And second, Jesus orders the healed man and the witnesses not to tell anyone- but they proclaim what he has done anyway. The spiritual healing of the crowd has begun: the astonished bystanders say of Jesus, "He has done all things well." Are we able to say the same? Have we allowed our spiritual ears to be opened by Jesus' "epphatha"? And have our tongues been loosed to proclaim the Good News in word and in example? We, who are fortunate to hear and speak, sometimes do not really hear what the Lord is saying to us and we act as if we are deaf. Then, there are those times when we do not speak as one with faith should speak; perhaps these are the times we should be mute. But Jesus did not perform miracles so the people can believe that He was the Son of God; Jesus performed miracles to mediate the power of God. Jesus' true identity is revealed in His passion, death and resurrection where He intercedes between God and His people. Let us be like the person in today's gospel whose ears and mouth were opened and let us heed God's word and speak his message to all.

Be assured of my prayers and I ask you to please remember me in your prayers.

God bless,
Father Di Orio
